Credit Card Verification Code

With credit card orders - for your protection and ours - we request the additional "V-code" Verification Code from your credit card. This Verification Code is found in one of two different places, depending on the type of credit card that you have. (See the table below.)

This new additional number (fraud protection) checking system has been created so that if someone does have possession of your credit card numbers they also need to have possession of your card in order to know what your V-code numbers are.

Card

The Verification Code (V-Code) is a three-digit, non-embossed number on the back of your Visa, MasterCard, or Discover credit card. The full credit card number is reprinted in the signature box, and at the end of the number is the Verification Code.

Verification Code (V-Code) location

The Verification Code is a four-digit number on the front of the card above the credit card number on either the right or the left side of your American Express credit card.
